

The Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

c y c l e b . : y e a r 2 0 0 6

1. For the holy catholic church: let her be an imitator of God, handing herself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God ...

(Pause)

[CANTOR sings “Hear us O Lord, we pray”],

((sung) english, spanish, latin triple response)

2. For Pope Benedict; for Bishop Michael and for Father Stan; for those who have been drawn to Christ, and who share in His priestly ministry in Sacrament of the Word and in Sacrament of the Meal ...

(Pause)

[CANTOR sings “Hear us O Lord, we pray”],

((sung) english, spanish, latin triple response)

3. For those who are at war;
for an end to angry words and angry acts,
for an end to fear,
and for a time of peace,
a time of love,
and a time of understanding...

(Pause)

[CANTOR sings “Hear us O Lord, we pray”],

((sung) english, spanish, latin triple response)

4. For the church and the people of New Orleans and Biloxi still suffering from last year's hurricanes;
for the poor and the homeless of our own town
who seek food and refuge at Cornerstone,
for the poor and the hungry
of Appalachia, Haiti, Africa and beyond,
and for all who live in poverty ...

(Pause)

[CANTOR sings "Hear us O Lord, we pray"],
((sung) english, spanish, latin triple response)

5. For all our departed beloved:
for John Fortin, Senior,

---

---

and for all those who have died;

Lead all souls to heaven,
especially those in most need of Your mercy...

(Pause)

[CANTOR sings "Hear us O Lord, we pray"],
((sung) english, spanish, latin triple response)
