

1. For the Church:

for the powerful and for the weak,
for the faithful and for the unfaithful,
for pope and for penitent;
for a common vision of the Kingdom of God;

(Pause) We pray...

(Sung: O God, hear us. Hear our prayer.)

2. For leaders of our parishes, our nation and the nations of the world;

for peace within our parishes,
peace within our governments,
for an end to violence and an end to war,
and for justice for everyone who is in need;

(Pause) We pray...

(Sung: O God, hear us. Hear our prayer.)

3. For the women and men who have chosen vocations of service in the military, and for those who have chosen vocations of service to God in the Church;

for those throughout the world who work for justice and for the good of all the children of God,

(Pause) We pray...

(Sung: O God, hear us. Hear our prayer.)

4. Give us generous hearts to help those who have less than we;
If time has caused us to forget those who are in need,
Remind us, and make us a people united in purpose:
a people united in care;

(Pause) We pray...

(Sung: O God, hear us. Hear our prayer.)

5. Give eternal life to our beloved family and friends whom we love who have died in this past year;
(pause)
Give eternal life to persons of all faiths and flags who have died in the war,
(pause)
Give eternal life to all those whose names are inscribed in the Book of Remembrance,; (pause)
and for

(pause)

and for all the dead...

Lead all souls to your Kingdom,
especially those in most need of Your mercy...

(Pause) We pray...

(Sung: O God, hear us. Hear our prayer.)

O, God, Hear Us

O God, hear us! Hear our prayer.

Jesus Christ is the "faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and ruler of the kings of the earth."

Daniel 7:13-14. The mysterious image of "one like a Son of man"—probably representing the faithful people of Israel in its original context— was evoked by Jesus to describe his ministry.

Psalm of the Day: Ps (92) 93

This enthronement psalm praises God as king of creation.

Suggested Common Psalm

Psalm (121) 122: I Rejoiced When I Heard Them Say

Revelation 1:5-8. The author expects Jesus, the faithful witness, to return in victorious triumph, revealing the meaning of the resurrection to all.

John 18:33b-37. In the confrontation between Jesus and Pilate, Pilate learns a new meaning of kingly rule: giving testimony to the truth.
