1. For the holy catholic church: reveal Jesus' presence through her...

(Pause)

[CANTOR sings "Hear us O Lord, we pray"],

((sung) english, spanish, latin triple response)

2. For Pope Benedict; for Bishop Michael; for Father Stan, Father Brian, Father Ed and Father John; for all who are a special sign of God's presence among us...

(Pause)

[CANTOR sings "Hear us O Lord, we pray"],

((sung) english, spanish, latin triple response)

3. For the Middle East divided by enmity; inspire and remind them of the divine presence of God spoken to them through the Torah and the Prophets ...

(Pause)

[CANTOR sings "Hear us O Lord, we pray"],

((sung) english, spanish, latin triple response)

4. For the people at war;
for an end to angry words and angry acts,
and for a time of peace,
a time of love,
and a time of understanding...

(Pause)

[CANTOR sings "Hear us O Lord, we pray"],

((sung) english, spanish, latin triple response)

5. For the church and the people of New Orleans and Biloxi who still suffer their losses from last year's hurricanes;
for the poor and the homeless of our own town
    who seek food and refuge at Cornerstone,
for the poor and the hungry of Appalachia and Haiti
    and the missions in Africa and beyond,
for the one of every eight Americans living in poverty;
for all the poor of the world who live
    among the wealthiest of the world...

(Pause)

[CANTOR sings "Hear us O Lord, we pray"],
    ((sung) english, spanish, latin triple response)

6. For Susan and Jason, married today, and for all the newly married,

(Pause)

[CANTOR sings "Hear us O Lord, we pray"],
    ((sung) english, spanish, latin triple response)

7. For all our departed beloved:
for the Catholic Church's oldest cardinal, Cardinal Johannes Willebrands, who was a tireless promoter of Christian unity and ecumenism,

and for all those who have died;

Lead all souls to heaven,
especially those in most need of Your mercy...

(Pause)

[CANTOR sings "Hear us O Lord, we pray"],
((sung) english, spanish, latin triple response)
